What axe body spray smells the best

Being a man, you've got quite a few different factors to keep in mind in order to make sure that you're as presentable as possible. Keeping your hairline cleaned up, cleaning dirt out of your fingernails, and trimming your beard are just a few examples of these things. While these are all important, one that's even more critical is making sure you smell good. There are many ways to go about this, but a favorite for a lot of men is by using a best smelling Axe spray. Axe is a brand that's likely familiar to a lot of you reading this, and that's because it's one of the most popular companies around for men's deodorant, body sprays, body washes, shampoos, and more. While we're sure a lot of you are interested in learning about the best Axe body wash that you can buy, today we're focusing on the company's body sprays. It's quite difficult nowadays to keep up with all of the different scents and flavors that Axe offers, and if you only want to be spraying your body with the best that Axe has to offer, here are the top 5 best smelling sprays that the company has created to date.

1. Axe HarmonyFor our first Axe body spray review, we're talking about Harmony. Harmony is the newest of all the fragrances on this list to make its way to the Axe body spray world, and it's also one of our favorites that the company has concocted to date. Harmony offers an extremely enticing aroma, featuring a fragrance that's calling and sophisticated that also features a masculine mixture of ginger, citrus, and pepper. All of these components come together to create a wildly great smell, and it's a true testament as to just how much Axe has grown and matured over the years. Similar to a lot of the sprays that Axe creates, Harmony's scent is rather strong. Just a few sprays will have you set, but be aware that it's extremely easy to overdo things if you aren't being careful with how much you apply in one sitting. Another reason this particular product made it onto our list is because of the great value that it offers. You can currently pick up a 6 pack of Harmony for just under $23, and while the uproot cost is more than what you'll pay for a single bottle, the long-term savings here is phenomenal. 2. Axe ExciteExcite is a much older scent than Harmony, but that doesn't mean it isn't worth checking out anymore. In fact, Excite still remains as one of the best and most widely used Axe fragrances ever. As you'd expect, Excite takes a much different approach than what you'll find with Harmony. Unlike the fruity and citrusy undertones of the previous scent, Excite offers a prominent woody fragrance with the most subtle undertone of sweetness. This is combined with a nice blend of caramel, hazelnut, and coconut notes, and the end result is still out of this world. Some customers have reported that the coconut is rather prominent with Excite, and whether or not this appeals to you will come down to your personal preference. We personally can't get enough of what Excite has to offer, but if you're looking for something a bit more manly, there are plenty of other sprays on this list that will suite you perfectly.
3. Axe PhoenixBefore we dive into some of Axe's more rustic and masculine scents, we need to talk about one more spray that's on the fruity side of things — Phoenix is that spray. With Phoenix, you'll be using a spray that focuses on aroma notes of fruity and freshness. The most prominent ingredients include lavender, citrus, and geranium, and while that may sound a bit feminine on paper, the actual result in person is fantastic. Tons of men have gotten their hands on Phoenix over the years, and it's been described best as a classy and subtle scent. That may seem a bit odd in the world of Axe body sprays, but it's true! Phoenix is one of the most unique sprays that Axe has ever created, and while it sometimes feels out of place when compared to the rest of the company's offerings, that's not necessarily a bad thing at all. 4. Axe EssenceNext up on our list, we've got Axe Essence. This is another oldie but goodie, and it's going to be a lot more appealing to you fellow guys reading this that want an Axe spray that really focuses on being as manly and masculine as possible. Essence offers up incredibly strong body aromas, and the touch of oriental spices is a small but fantastic addition that really does put Essence in a class above the rest. Essence is similar to Phoenix in the sense that people have been using it for a number of years, and during all of that time, Axe has perfected it into one of the most captivating aromas its ever produced. Essence lasts for an extremely long amount of time, and it's also quite strong. This is another one of Axe's sprays where less is more, and while you might accidentally overdo it the first couple of times, you'll quickly get a hang of things in regards to knowing when enough is enough.
5. Axe Dark TemptationLastly, our fifth and final pick for the best smelling Axe spray is Dark Temptation. Dark Temptation is made via a combination of hot chocolate, amber, and red peppercorn notes, and the smell is stupidly satisfying and enticing. Dark Temptation is one of Axe's most sensual sprays, meaning that it'll be your perfect companion when out on a hot date with your wife or girlfriend. This is also one of the few Axe sprays that isn't overly strong — something that other Axe sprays can struggle with. You obviously don't want to spray the entire can on yourself at once, but when used in moderation and normal amounts, Dark Temptation offers users an extremely pleasant scent that know how to hold its punches when necessary.

Final Thoughts We've always been rather big fans of Axe here at Stubble Patrol, and the five fragrances listed here are undoubtedly the top picks for pretty much any guy. The spray that you like the most will ultimately come down to your own subjective preference and style, but there's enough variety here for you to find at least one spray that really calls to you. Whatever one you do end up picking, rest assured that you'll get people's attention with how good you smell. As an Amazon Associate I earn from qualifying purchases. Axe has been a popular brand of cheaply priced fragrances for decades now. I used to wear different body spray scents in high school, will still use the body washes and the deodorants, to this day. They've come out with seemingly endless scents under different names, but what are the best smelling Axe Body Spray scents for guys? What Are Best Axe Body Sprays or Deodorant Scents? Best Overall Axe Fragrance AXE Body Spray for Men, Kilo 4 oz (Pack of 6)- This is what I wore back in 10-11th grade. Kilo was utterly great, and got me complimented like crazy, from girls when I wore it. Axe was popular back then, but there didn't seem to be many guys around, that were wearing this particular scent...but it was my favorite, at the time. It was fresh, slightly spicy, and sweet. As I recall, Kilo had a vanilla, light citrus, mint, and possibly lavender lineup of ingredients. It had an aromatic sort of freshness, with enough spice to give the spray an edge. I never see this one in stores locally anymore, but you can get it online still. Kilo was like the perfect balance, out of the Axe collection of fragrances. Very smooth and calming, while still being masculine. Not overly fruity or sweet. Classic and still one of the best body sprays ever. Top Sweet/Gourmand Scent. Axe Body Spray Dark Temptation- Warm and sweet, creamy chocolate with a vanilla undertone. Dark Temptation is delicious and this was one of the anti-perspirants that I wore, once I grew out of the body sprays. Girls have always seemed to respond really well to this, the chocolate note just breeds compliments. I think that the body spray or the gel deodorant is better than the white stick deodorant. The latter, seems to have more of a sweet powdery aroma, versus the other options. I haven't been seeing the gel deodorant around, but that was my favorite option. The white stick, could feel too sweet, at times. The body spray was on point, however. A potential alternative, could be Gold Temptation. Best Fruity/Warm Weather Spray AXE Deodorant Body Spray Anarchy 150 Ml / 5.07 Oz (Pack of 6)- With notes of amber, sandalwood, and fruits (I pick up coconut and bergamot), Anarchy has a rich and smooth profile, much like Dark Temptation. It smells great while maintaining a fresh, youthful vibe. Anarchy is a masculine tropical fragrance. It is youthful and does have the sharper bergamot note, at the start, but settles down into a delightful aroma. The amber is a great addition. The fruit notes, give the top and opening creaminess, and light sharpness from citrus. There might actually be some other types of fruit in there, that's too difficult to discern. Nonetheless, the amber warmth, and woody base really does a great job at tying it all together. My Review of Anarchy Top Fresh Axe Deodorant Axe Gold Fresh Iced Mint & Leather- This is actually my current anti-perspirant deodorant, that I use each day. A lot of people don't seem to like the body sprays from Axe (or at least its associations with high school kids) and while I don't wear those anymore, the deodorant sticks are great. They last all day and don't quit. Axe Gold Fresh is a crisp and cold mint with a smooth and rich leather aroma. I love it. It's a relatively simple pairing, but one that doesn't seem to happen often. Gold Fresh is an understated and clean option, that really shines, when the temperature drops. There's also another Gold Fresh option which pairs oud and leather. It's more of a dry woody take, on this formula. I wore that one, for a while also, and prefer it in some ways. Energetic Cold Weather Scent Axe EXCITE Body Spray & Deodorant. 48 HOUR ODOR PROTECTION! Energized & Fresh! (6 Cans, 5oz each Can)- Axe Excite relies on coconut, hazelnut, and caramel to create a sweet gourmand fragrance with a woody base. It's sweetness has a cocoa butter vibe, in my mind. I like it and will use this body wash, when I can grab a bottle on sale. Excite and Anarchy share that coconut ingredient. However, Anarchy is the fruitier fragrance of the two, with a lighter aroma. Anarchy feels more suited towards warmer weather, than Excite. This one seems more appropriate in the colder months of the year. The coconut doesn't make it too tropical versus the nutty and caramel notes. This one is really easy to wear, as it isn't too in your face or spicy. Axe Excite Review Best New Axe Release Axe Gold Citron- This one isn't super complicated, but it's a very nice new release from the brand. A citrus blend with white woods that is fresh and quite bright. Gold Citron does what so many popular men's fragrances do, by pairing that chilled citrus aroma along with a woody base. It's a nice wear for the summer months and isn't as 'in your face' as many others from the Axe line of scents. Attractive, low-key, but one that is a great experience for those who want a zesty and clean fragrance throughout the day. Best Men's Colognes started back in 2013, as a way to share my learning experiences with different fragrances, as I dove head first into the hobby. Since then, I have written hundreds of reviews and other pages about perfumes and colognes.
